

Thank you for including Sworn Enemy in your reading. Warning: some of these questions contain mild plot spoilers.

1. Have you ever unintentionally harmed someone you cared about? Discuss Peter's feelings of guilt over Jacques's death. Do you agree with Genevieve's forgiveness, or do you think she should have held Peter more responsible? Why or why not?
2. Discuss one or more of Genevieve's choices and the motivation behind her decisions:
 - Her decision to pursue a career in nursing
 - Her decision to join a new church
 - Her decision to accept an espionage assignment
3. Sergeant Logan has complicated loyalties. Do you feel sympathy for him and his cause?
4. How does Moretti show concern and loyalty for Peter? For Luke?
5. How does trust or lack of trust affect marriage? Discuss the problems between Vasile and Iuliana Ionescu. Is there anything they could have done to improve their marriage, or were they helpless victims?
6. How do your feelings for Jamie change throughout the novel?
7. Discuss Major Schroeder. Is he a good man? Do you think he is more motivated by hatred for Weiss, or by concern for doing the right thing?
8. If you were given the choice Iuliana faces with Eliade in Chapter Thirty-Nine (Kidnappers and Wiretappers), what would you have done if you didn't have Peter, Krzysztof, Jamie, and Fish to assist you?
9. Is torture ever justified?
10. There is an old saying: my enemy's enemy is my friend. How far do you think this idea should be carried? Consider this saying in regards to:
 - Sergeant Logan's decisions on who to work with.
 - The overall alliance between the United States, Great Britain, and the Soviet Union during WWII.
 - Romania's alliances during WWII.
11. Discuss trust, what creates it, what weakens it, and what strengthens it, in regards to these relationships:
 - Iuliana Ionescu and Valise Ionescu
 - Iuliana Ionescu and Tiberiu Ionescu
 - Major Schroeder and Genevieve Olivier
 - Peter Eddy and Sergeant Moretti
 - Peter Eddy and Daniel Fisher
 - Jamie Nelson and the other members of the team
 - Jamie Nelson and Major Wesley Baker
 - Iuliana Ionescu and Krzysztof Zielinski
12. How strong of a motivating factor is duty for Peter? For Genevieve? For Schroeder? For Jamie?
13. Which members of Baker's team are your favorites? Why?
14. There are multiple villains in Sworn Enemy. Do you feel sorry for any of them? Which character do you most dislike? Why?
15. Discuss the conflict between being a good person and being a good spy. How do you feel Genevieve and Peter do in their desire to fulfill both roles? Are there any actions either of them take that you disagree with?
